THE NEW MISSISSIPPI TAX BILL.
The following is a synopsis of the recently passed by the Mississippi Legislature, and which has received the signature of Governor Alcorn, whereby tax is to be raised to defray the expenses of the State and for other purposes:

Per annum
On all property, both real and personal, money, choses in action, notes, bills, receivables, bonds and stocks, incorporated companies in this State, on all assessments of all actions and improvements on real estate,  $\frac{1}{100}$  of 1 per cent.

lings at 19; 15 strict Middleings at 19 1/2;
There is but one responsible trade of dry cotton on the market, and it embraces less than 200 bales of river cotton and few Middleings. All other tables are small and generally mixed or stale.
At the close the market was nominal.
